

The China Press

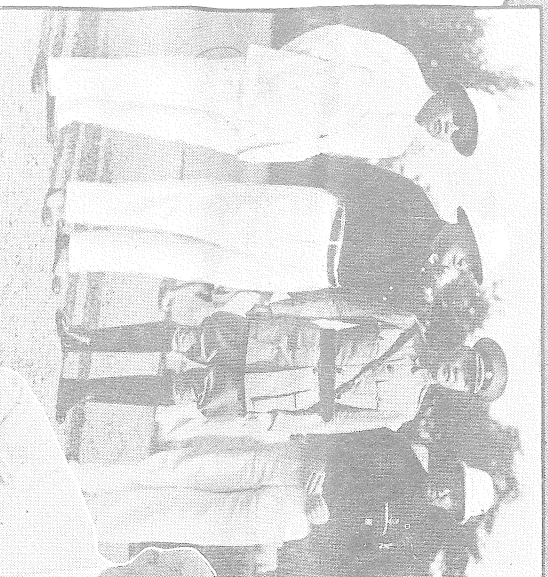

Sunday, August 11, 1935

Photography Section

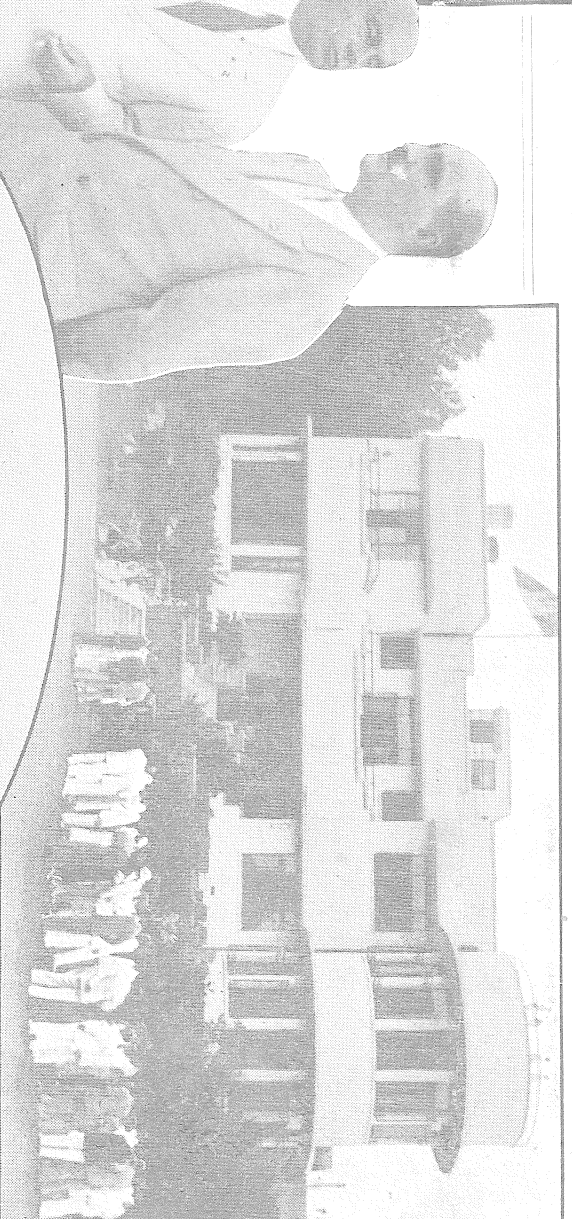

Pictorial Review of the Week's Activities

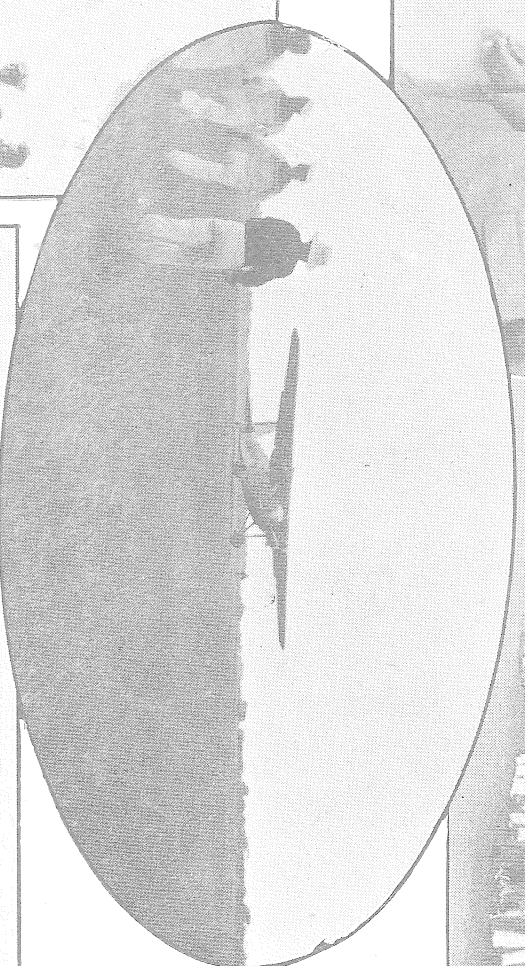

BENITO MUSSOLINI'S gift to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, the Savoia-Marchetti S-72, shown above after she had landed at the Hungjiao airdrome at 3:50 p.m. last Sunday. The plane was greeted by a group of neat blackshirts, headed by H. E. Signor Vincenzo Lojacono, ambassador to China.—International News Photo.

PHOTOGRAPHED AS they awaited the plane, above, left to right, are: Mr. Tang Ju-shuen, acting for Mayor Wu Tchen; Ambassador Lojacono, General Yang Hu, Peace Preservation Chief; and Captain Furio Drago. At right are Commander L. Neyrone (left) and Mr. V. Fumagalli.—China Press Photos by A. Krause.

Above and Left: THE ITALIAN FLIERS were given a reception at the home of Ambassador Lojacono last Monday. The S-72 is shown at left as she landed on Hungjiao field.—China Press Photo.

Above and Right: THE PILOTS and their welcoming party as they walked back to the new field headquarters. The headquarters, displaying Italian and Chinese flags, may be seen at right.—International News Photo.

