10th July, 1914

Dear Mr. Clark,

Allow me to introduce to you Signor Vigilio Fumagalli,
a student at Brescia, Commercial University
in Milan. He intends staying three or four months in London.

and I shall be most obliged to you if you will kindly let him follow some of the classes of your College.
Mr. Fumagalli is a steady young man and very clever - he has about a good knowledge of English and will make it perfect in a very short time. He does not wish to take
lessons for foreigners, he only wants to join English classes, even with small boys.
He hopes that you

will let him pay out
the lessons free of payment, as you
kindly do for some other students of Boscon University.

Your secretary wrote me that you are thinking of establishing your system of training also in Italy. It behoves it is a capital idea and, please,
don't forget Milan
when making a choice of the cities where you will have one of your schools.

Remember that if I can be of any help to you in this,
I shall be most glad to do it.

I am certain that you will be pleased to hear that our beloved Headmaster Dr. Leopold Sabbatini died a few weeks ago!
The path he left behind and before him is luminous and we will follow it most conscientiously as to make his school a complete success. I hope what Thanking you for what you will do for me
I remain
Yours very truly
F. S. Adamson.
